Following in Granny D's footsteps

New Hampshire Rebellion walkers enjoy a bright and mild walk down Route 16 just south of Pinkham Notch on their way to North Conway Wednesday. The 185-mile march, invoking the famous N.H. campaign finance reform protester Granny D., raising awareness for the need for reform as participants march from Dixville Notch. (JAMIE GEMMITI PHOTO)

Doherty 'honored' to be an Olympian

By LLOYD JONES
THE CONWAY DAILY SUN

CONWAY — Sean Doherty is the youngest biathlete to ever be selected to the U.S. Olympic Team and looks forward to representing his country next month.

Doherty, 18, the son of Mary and Dan Doherty, of Center Conway, was one of nine athletes nominated to the 2014 United States Olympic Team on Sunday by the U.S. Biathlon's International Competition Committee (ICC). The 2013 Kennett High
